

Cram (Web or APP with Chromebooks)

Make digital notecards. Students can quiz themselves, play games using their cards, or just study using the flashcards.

The screenshot shows the Cram.com dashboard for user molson3831. The page includes a navigation bar with 'StudyMode' and 'cram' logos, and options for 'Create Flashcards', 'Subjects', and mobile app links for 'iPhone' and 'Android'. A search bar is also present. The main content area features a 'Welcome molson3831' message and a 'Upgrade to Cram Premium' button. Below this, there are tabs for 'Created', 'Folders', 'Favorites', and 'Recently Studied'. A 'Create New Set' button and a search bar are visible. A table lists existing flashcard sets:

| Set Title | Cards | Subjects | Folders | Access | Created | Tools |

The screenshot shows the 'Games' section of the Cram.com interface. It features a navigation bar with 'Flashcards', 'Memorize', 'Test', and 'Games' tabs. The main content area is titled 'A Fun Way To Study Your Flashcards!' and includes a promotional message: 'At Cram.com we know you are always looking for new ways to help you learn, and what better way to learn than a game? Our new game, Jewels of Wisdom, combines flashcard knowledge with a fast paced jewel matching game.' Below this, two game cards are displayed:

- JEWELS of WISDOM: A screenshot of the game interface showing a grid of colorful jewels and a list of words to match.
- STELLAR SPELLER: A screenshot of the game interface showing a grid of letters (E, A, O, L) and a starburst graphic.

Both game cards have a 'PLAY NOW' button.
